

Fake

*I can't stand the sight of you
I can't stand what you put me through
Your life's a lie, that you hide
Is it that terrible being you inside?
I can't stand, oh the thought of you
I can't stand all the things you do
What do you try to justify?
You were just too scared to be you inside*

Let it all go

Look at you, all I see, is a man too afraid to really be

*I can't stand what you put me through
I can't stand even the thought of you
Your secret lies that you hide
Is it that terrible being you inside?*

Let it all go

*Look at you, all I see, is a man too afraid to
really be*

*You try so hard to be wanted
False emotions tells you fronted
I think being a person relies on one thing
Be yourself, let you come through You're too afraid to really be (Be yourself, let you* come through)

Someone who isn't false, who doesn't care to be (Be yourself, let you come through)

Fake

Fake, you'll regret it, you'll regret it

Let it all go
