

Way Too Far

*Here it comes
Once again
'Irrational'
I give in
Paranoia
Expands within
Little voices start to begin:*

*Everyone's out to take your joy away
Constantly scheming to keep us at bay
Everyone's plotting and they are just taking
You must make it stop
Make them pay*

*Sometimes I just take things
Way Too Far
Irrational feeling
I just try too hard 'cause
What goes up, must come down
The problem is I have no bounds 'cause
Sometimes I just take things Way Too Far*

*Reality is surreal
Recklessness is all I feel
Now its really just a way
God, I hear the voices say:*

*Everyone's out to take your joy away
Constantly scheming to keep us at bay
Everyone's plotting and they are just taking
You must make it stop
Make them pay*

*Sometimes I just take things
Way Too Far
Irrational feeling
I just try too hard 'cause
What goes up, must come down
The problem is I have no bounds 'cause
Sometimes I just take things Way Too Far*

Woohoooo! Woohoooo! Woohoooo! Woohoooo!

Sometimes I just take things

Way Too Far
Irrational feeling
I just try too hard 'cause
What goes up, must come down
The problem is I have no bounds 'cause
Sometimes I just take things Way Too Far
