

Paranoid and Aroused

*Help me, I am breaking
And my heart is barely beating
And the demons they are creeping around.
Take me, I am sinking
And my lungs are barely breathing
As the angels put me into the ground.*

*And everybody's peeking.
No one makes a sound.
The shadows are deceiving.
Paranoid and aroused.*

*Slam me, I am shaking
And my guts are really aching
And the demons, they're laughing out loud.
Spare me, I am fading
And my will is dissipating
As the angels put me into the ground.*

*And everybody's peeking.
No one makes a sound.
The shadows are deceiving.

*My mind is debating
These creatures I'm making.
This medicine's sedating
The power embracing.
The fall I'm facing.*

*My feelings I'm hating.
Reality is failing.

*And everybody's peeking.
No one makes a sound.
The shadows are deceiving.

*The fall I'm facing.
My feelings I'm hating.
Reality is failing.
