

Sanctuary

*A slap in the face, it is endowed
The light of my life is put out somehow
I'm lying in pieces of emotions you control
You're feeding my sympathy the lie unfolds*

*Feeling this hostility, I pray
Begging, make this evil go away
Coveting the things I only fear
Building my sanctuary of blood and tears*

*The lines that I traced
Around the scars they swell
Inflamed with a sedative
To numb this spell*

*I'm lying in pieces of emotions you control
You're feeding this cancer
It's taken hold*

*Feeling this hostility, I pray
Begging, make this evil go away
Coveting the things I only fear
Building my sanctuary of blood and tears*

*Feeling animosity
When no one else is around
Blindly, I scream into the air
Eating my heart off the ground*

*Feeling this hostility, I pray
Begging, make this evil go away
Coveting the things I only fear
Building my sanctuary of blood and tears*

GROOOOOOOOOUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUND!
