

For No One

I'm gettin out im leavin here Im kickin right thru this door I stole your girl who was my girl I always said shes a whore bust thru accererate from everything i hate now this is my kind of disaster we're gonna take what we want and then burn down the liquir store pick up our friends tell them "lets all get in" dont ask what its for somore for kickin in porn on the TV screen these spinnin rims don't go no faster

*we can ride all night and we're not gonna stomp on the breaks for no one
just follow the light
and we're not gonna stomp on the breaks for no
one*

we're flippin off the poeple who just thought us that's just a game we're throwin bricks right thru their windows and then we drive away lets break this, spin around new things are better found we keep on changin our direction go past the school, the church the places that casued us hurt, we're done If we keep movin foward maybe we'll forget where we're from we're gonna shake things up we're gonna break you down we'll fuel this car with our ejection

and we're not gonna stomp on the breaks for no
one
just follow the light
and we're not gonna stomp on the breaks for no
one
you can never go back not even know where your in deep now you've been fuckin up real good lately one minute you come from zero now
and we're not gonna stomp on the breaks for no
one
just follow the light
and we're not gonna stomp on the breaks for no
one
we can dive all night
and we're not gonna stomp on the breaks for no
one
just follow the light
one
