

Love Song

*Muder! your holding my heart, screaming Motherfucker!
they left me broken, bleeding Son of! the man you loved and left for The son of a bitch! who tried to show me their scar* everything's illuminating everything is dedicating my belief destroyed my hated? never get what's over-rated *love song for the dear departed head song for the broken hearted arm's to kill

or flowers to steal head-drift for the more hurt bound one sip of the blood that i found lieing here
Im dying here*

*As in! the bitch who's worries rain down Its ok!
we're lieing naked face down* can you see me fasinated?

your the only thing i've damaged what you get to be mis-managed

don't bring me dafadils being a boquet of pills see some drainum cracked to the crainum protect me when you can just strike me when i am dieing

Im dying here

Im dying here
