

Tearjerker

*Well I wish there was someone
Well I wish there was someone
To love me*

*When I used to be someone
And I knew there was someone
That loved me*

*As I sit here frozen alone
Even ghosts get tired and go home
As they crawl back under the stars (or "stones")*

*And I wish there was something
Please tell me theres something better
And I wish there was something more than this
Saturated loneliness*

*And I wish I could feel it
And I wish I could steal it
Abduct it, corrupt it, but I never can
it's just saturated loneliness*

*Does the silence get lonely ?
Does the silence get lonely ?
Who knows ?
I've been hearing it tell me
I've been hearing it tell me
Go home*

*Cause the freaks are playing tonight
They packed up and turned out the lights*

*And I wish there was something
Please tell me theres something better
And I wish there was something more than this
Saturated loneliness*

*And I wish I could feel it
And I wish I could steal it
Abduct it, corrupt it, but I never can
It's just saturated loneliness*

*And the bath waters cold
And this lifes getting old*

*And I wish I could feel it
And I wish I could feel it
And I wish I could steal it
Abduct it, corrupt it
And I wish I could feel it
And I wish I could steal it
And I wish I could feel it
Abduct it, corrupt it
But I never can
I never can
Never Can
Never Can
Never Can*
