

Alive

*I can not ever find a way to throw these darkened thoughts away need a place to hide its thrown in my face everyday guess thats the price I have to pay for whats inside my mind
a-live !*

*I am alive
I will never run away
places inside
my heart screams inside with pride
once I cried
now I wipe away the tears
once I died
now im alive
a-live !*

*little things take me everyday lots of pain is how i like to play better not cross that line why's this in my head have to be saved its something I cant throw away whats inside my mind
I am alive
I will never run away
places inside
once I cried
now I wipe away the tears
once I died*

now I'm alive

I find my time

I'm in a twine

I'm falling in this place I thought I left behind (feeling so alive)

a-live !

I am alive

I will never run away

once I cried

once I died
