

Wish I Wasn't Born Today

[Verse 1] Annotate

*I'm falling in this pit of sorrow
I really don't care anyway
Happiness I'm looking to borrow
Even for a second's okay
I'm starting to feel so so hollow
Fill me up and go on your way
I doubt I'll release it tomorrow
So I'll just do my best anyway*

[Chorus]

*Hold me now
I've been knocking down
Killing all these waves of shame
Hold me down
Feeling not so sound*

Wish I wasn't born today

[Verse 2]

*I'm starting to bring my devotion
What does that mean anyway
One little song sing interwoven
So much that it gets in my way
I'm starting to feel so so hollow
Fill me up and go on your way
I doubt I'll release it tomorrow
So I'll just do my best anyway*

[Chorus]
